

Textiles exports to US to go up: Maran

NEW YORK: Exports to the US can increase by $1.5-billion if it made an effort to bail out the ailing textiles sector, Textiles Minister Dayanidhi Maran said. "My (US) visit will help exporters grab a large chunk of the market, which is expected to rebound by 2010 and 2011."