

Textile export target within reach

The government has said it is confident that textiles exports target of $33 billion for 2011-12 will be achieved as there is a good demand from markets like Japan and Latin America.